COOKED FOR THE JAMES'

Mrs. Narcissa D. Wallace, Nearly One Hundred Years Old, Dies at Council Bluffs.

There died at Council Bluffs, Iowa, last Saturday a woman who had a history—one that was considerably tinged with romance, and hardship and peril at times—for she was for several years employed as a cook for the James boys and at the time of the sudden taking off of Jesse James in this city was with the bandit and Mrs. James and Jesse Jr., an occupant of the now famous James house on High School hill.

This woman was Mrs. Narcissa D. Wallace and she was nearly one hundred years old when she died Saturday at the Council Bluffs home of her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Reynolds, 220 Seventeenth avenue. Mrs. Wallace was a resident of Council Bluffs in the old days when it was Kansasville, and lived in a camp there while her husband was making the first survey of the county. She was born in Ohio in August, 1821. She is survived by seven children, Mrs. Mary Gingers of Earlham, Ia., Mrs. Missouri E. Reynolds, Council Bluffs; S. B. Haytt, Pacific Junction; G. W. Haytt, Lamont, Okla.; B. M. Haytt, Council Bluffs; Mrs. N. J. Thomas and Mrs. Lena Hyatt, both of Clarinda.

SOME "FIERCE" INSIDE DOPE IS GIVEN OUT

twelve years when they controlled the county committee and put over a program for the selection of delegates, we took our medicine as good Republicans, as we believe in majority rule and don't equal when defeated in the committee. They had so much at stake at this time that had the county committee given them every ward and township he would have made his attacks just the same. If he had been dealing square with the men and women Republican voters of this city and county he would have told them that he—Morris, Stauber and Company—were fighting to have Morris elected delegate-at-large, and Stauber from the district, so as to trade at Chicago for federal patronage. That's the fly in the ointment in this whole fight. Morris is looking for a federal job as we who are on the inside of things do not expect to see him remain long in his present position. During these past six weeks he has been crying from the house tops that he didn't want to be a delegate to the national convention—his fight was for parity in politics. Ye Gods! think of purifying the Republican party through Ralph Stauber, Charlie Morris, John Clark, George Toel, Charlie Faust, Bert Voorhees, Benny Arnholt, Eddie Beams, Harry Darnell, Frank Lemon (and he is a lemon) Jim Sampson, Merrill Otis, and others too numerous to mention. It's enough to bring Jesse James back to life.

Like One of Philley's Shows
"When the fight reached the state convention it was really like attending one of 'Philley's Bare Leg' shows at the Lyceum to see Charlie Morris and 'Pussyfoot' Stauber the one taking the part of the Irish, and the other the German comedian of the burlesque show—running from one to the other of the Republican leaders of the state—abusing and vilifying me in the most malicious manner, making threats of what they would do to the party if their gang wasn't seated in the convention. You should have been in the Coates House when the state committee put our delegation on the temporary roll. I urged several of our colored delegates to find Dr. Crossland quick, as Morris and Stauber needed medical attention. Being seated in the convention, awaiting the credential committee's report gave us the delegate badges (and they were beautiful) and entrance to the floor, and you should have been there to see how four colored delegates wore the honors all day Wednesday, all that night and the next day, while Morris, Stauber, Faust, McNeely, Otis, Darnell, Lemon, Innis, Lindsay, Bodenhausen, Clark, Voorhees, Toel, Boams, Benny Arnholt (keeper of the ballot box), Windsor and Kalle were perched in the gallery looking down like a lot of park squirrels waiting for a handout of nuts.

"Now comes the best part of all the convention's actions. After the credentials committee had been on our case about twenty minutes, two of the leading republicans of the state called on me and suggested that as long as they didn't need our 31 votes why not seat the Morris-Stauber faction and then roll Morris with Doctor Crossland. This made me happy and we agreed.

The Rush for the Interurban

"If you could have been there when the final vote was announced you would have been as happy as I was. In a total of over 1,500 votes, Morris got a little over 300. Then to see Morris, Stauber and their followers leave the convention and rush for the first interurban car was a picnic. The treatment by this boss crowd of Mrs. Robertson who made it possible by her organization of several hundred republican women in the late fight for Morris and Stauber to help put over their gang is a story in itself to be told at another time.

"In closing, I want to ask those good republicans, Messrs. Bodenhausen, Bartlett, Hamilton, Robertson, Kalle, Castott, Wall, Weigel, Moore, and the many hundreds of good republican women how they like the idea of Morris & Company all the time saying Morris didn't want to be a delegate, but as soon as he saw an opening in the convention begged to place his name before the delegates and in 30 minutes his malicious misrepresentative campaign through the Gazette ended in his utter defeat and Dr. J. R. A. Crossland being selected as a delegate to the National Republican convention which will nominate the next president of the United States. No wonder Morris is sore.

"Respectfully, JOHN ALBUS."

Several Morgan county farmers, the smaller ones, the Versallies Statesman says, have concluded to work the roads this year and not farm at all. A dozen or more of these farmers are waiting for road work to open, the paper says.
